HOO-HOO ORDER'S ANNUAL SESSION

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 9.—The Order of Hoo-Hoo, including men in the lumber and allied industries throughout the country, in annual session here tonight, decided to hold the twenty-third consecration of the order in San Francisco in 1915. Arrangements will be made to have a Hoo-Hoo home on the grounds of the Panama Pacific exposition. The organization also decided to send to the next conservation congress a Hoo-Hoo delegation to offer the services of the order in saving the forests of the United States. Frank W. Trower of San Francisco "Snark of the Universe" and head of the order, in commenting on the recent prosecution of lumbermen by the government denied that a "lumber trust ever had existed."

NOTICE OF INTENTION.

Notice is hereby given by the Board of Commissioners of Ogdin City, Utah, of the intention of said Board to make the following described improvements, to wit:

To create both sides of Ogdin Avenue between 7th and 8th Streets for a distance of 396 feet, and on Second Street west from Washington Avenue beginning at a point on the south side of Second Street 344 feet west of Washington Avenue, thence east to Washington Avenue and on the north side of the street from Washington to Wall Avenue as a sidewalk district, and to construct therein a concrete walk four feet wide and four inches in thickness with the necessary intersections together with the necessary grading therefor and to defray the whole of the cost thereof estimated at $1200.00, by a local assessment upon the lots or pieces of ground lying and being within the following district, being the district to be benefited or affected by said improvements.

All the lands lying between the outer boundary lines of said street and avenue, and a line drawn 50 feet outward from and parallel to the said outer boundary lines.

All protests and objections to the carrying out of such intention must be presented in writing to the City Recorder on or before the 12th day of September, 1913, at 10 o'clock a. m., that being the time set by said Board of Commissioners when they will hear and consider such objections as may be made thereto, at the mayor's office, at the City Hall, Ogdin City, Utah.

By order of the Board of Commissioners of Ogdin City, Utah. Dated this 18th day of August, 1913. H. J. CRAVEN, City Engineer. First publication August 20, 1913. Last publication September 11, 1913.

A FLOWER WITH A HISTORY.

"On the score of age alone, the peony should command the interest of all flower-lovers. It has a history which began many hundreds of years ago. The tree peony, Paeonia Moutan, is a native of China. This peony, more than any other flower, has been the glory and pride of the Chinese for nearly 1500 years, and has been a subject for their painters and a theme for their poets. In China, for more than 1000 years, a record has been kept of the parentage of seedlings of this peony and their characteristics. Its great beauty and fragrance made it, centuries ago, the favorite flower of China's emperors, and it was called 'Hwa Wang'—King of Flowers."—Suburban Life.
